

Santa Monica, Inglewood Lead League

While Inglewood was trouncing Torrance last Friday night, Santa Monica gridsters were carving another nick on their gun stock by knocking over the pre-season Bay League favorites David Starr Jordan, 12-6.

The wins for Samohi and the Sentinels threw the two into a tie for league-leading honors with each holding an unblemished record after two games.

Santa Monica, Torrance's next opponent, racked up 226 yards gained against 65 for Jordan. Samohi scored in the first two minutes of the ball game on a pass combination of Exley to O'Brien—a combination that kept the Panthers in a dither the whole game. Santa Monica's second score was by dusky "Bobo" Lewis who romped over from the eight-yard stripe to culminate a 70-yard drive which he engineered practically by himself.

Davy Hooser, of the Losers, scored the lone Panther tally on a ball drive over right tackle in the closing minutes of the first half.

Redondo moved into the win column Friday night by virtue of the Nick Vargas-less victory over a "not-as-weak-as-you-think" Leuzinger squad, 13-12. That the Seahawks offensive mainstay, Nick Vargas was benched with a bad knee may account for the fact that the losers garnered nine first downs while Redondo nabbed eight. Wash and Falcone scored the Redondo touchdowns while Leuzinger's tallies were made by Paulson and Smith.

Scoring seven touchdowns, at least one in each quarter, Beverly Hills romped to an unbeaten 46-6 victory over El Segundo Friday afternoon. Definitely not an upset, the contest amounted to not much more than a practice tilt for Beverly with Viner chalking up three TD's, Shimizu garnering two and Mann and Hoffman each tallying one. Van Hosen made the single El Segundo touchdown in the fourth quarter.

Who Lost the Inglewood Game, Not Who Won It, Is Question!

Emotions with regard to the Torrance Tartars who fell before the Inglewood Sentinels last Friday night, 25-6, were a little mixed this week.

Many of the fans who witnessed the naught-to-naught first half, felt the Tartars whipped themselves during the second half. While another group contends that 155 pounds of "catch-me-if-you-can" by the name of Jim Sears did most of the defeating. Probably it was a combination of the two.

Noticeable by its absence was the line crashing that was so largely responsible for the Tartar victory over Jordan the week before. Against Jordan the Torrance team bucked a heavier line to crash through and throw the Panthers back for a total of 53 yards. Against Inglewood they threw them for a total loss of one yard. They held Jordan to 32 yards net gain from running plays. Inglewood gained 281.

Fourteen times the fans saw Inglewood's plunging left half-back, Jim Sears (41), take the ball for an average gain of 11.8 yards each time he packed the pigskin. When Sears wasn't juggling the ball it usually went to his running mate, Lyle Goodwin, who toted the ball 10 times for an average gain of 8.7 yards.

The first half saw Torrance running the ball game. The Tartars made 87 yards the first two periods against Inglewood's 71 yards. Torrance made five first downs while Inglewood garnered three.

The thrills and chills started in the third period. Garrison kicked off to Sears, who packed the ball five times during the next series of eight plays that ended with his taking a lateral from Quarterback Joe Clark on the Torrance 45-yard strip and romp all the way for the game's first TD.

Dick Turner took Justice Olen's kickoff on the five-yard line and ran it to the 25. Nine plays and one 15-yard penalty later the Tartars culminated a 75-yard drive with Jack Taylor by chucking the line from seven yards out to score Torrance's only tally of the game. Turner's try for the point was wide.

Inglewood's second score went up on the boards when Sears, through the middle, went 62 yards for the TD. The conversion made it 13-6.

Their third tally came wrapped up as a gift. Torrance took the kickoff and brought it up to the 49. The next play, a fumble, was recovered by Inglewood on Torrance's own 24-yard line. Two plays later Clark heaved a pass good for 17 yards to Right End Marion Probert, who went over unmolested. Sears failed to add the extra point.

The final blow to Torrance's already broken pride came in the fourth stanza when Sears

Prognosticators, Rogers Remains as Top Picker

Ray Rogers, riding home on the strength of his accuracy in picking the winners in earlier games, continued to be the number one pigskin picker of the week in spite of the fact that Jack Baldwin, Torrance Herald sports editor, was the only picker to name Inglewood as the victor of the Sentinel-Tartar game last Friday night.

The relative standings of the nine prognosticators remained pretty much the same as last week, except that City Judge Otto Willett moved from sixth place last week to third place and shoved A. C. Turner, Milton Isbell and Stan Briggs back one notch each.

The following tabulation shows how the pickers called it last week, how far off they were and the total points they have missed in calling the four games so far.

Picker	Torr.	Ingl.	Diff.	Total
Rogers	13	0	38	49
Tolson Jr.	12	0	31	41
Willett	6	0	31	54
Turner	6	0	28	36
Isbell	12	0	37	53
Briggs	12	0	37	53
Stidler	19	0	44	65
Baldwin	6	1	24	30
Stroh	6	0	31	39

For Saturday night's gridiron fracas against the Santa Monica team, who is leading the league in a tie with Inglewood, the pigskin pickers are calling it like this:

Picker	Santa Monica	Torrance
Stidler	14	0
Rogers	13	0
Stroh	7	0
Baldwin	12	0
Willett	6	0
Isbell	1	0

ACCEPTS TROPHY—Dick Turner, currently cavoring on the gridiron for Torrance High School, was present at the recent meeting of the Lomita Optimist Club to accept the winner's laurels on behalf of the Torrance Hi-Y softball team which won the Torrance-Lomita League Championship. Turner captained the winning club.

Heroine Gets Capitol Trip for Navy Day

A possible visit with the President of the United States is in the offing when 17-year-old Ruth Oriani visits Washington, D.C., on Oct. 27 in observance of Navy Day.

Ruth won nation-wide attention when she rescued 2-year-old Larry Stansbury from an oil sump in the county area near 172nd and Normandie avenue. The heroine, daughter of a retired Navy chief machinist mate with 30 years service, lives with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Oriani, at 1565 W. 222nd street.

Lt. Col. E. Courtland Parker, president of the District of Columbia Council of the Navy League of the United States, who will act as Ruth's host on her tour of the nation's capitol, said of the young girl:

"We have thoroughly investigated this girl's exploits, and we feel that she should be held up nationally as a representative of American youth."

Ruth and her father are being flown to the national capitol where they will participate in Navy Day celebrations and where, if the president is at the White House, they will be offered the congratulations of the nation.

Duck Hunters Out for Sport; Meat on Table

With the second week of the split duck season coming up, resort keepers throughout the state were preparing for a heavy influx of nimrods who will take to the hills and marshes Saturday and Sunday in an attempt to combine sport with the task of putting meat on the table.

A split season—from Oct. 15 through Oct. 31 and from Dec. 23 through Jan. 6—has been scheduled.

Outing officials say that good duck catches are anticipated near such hunting areas as the Salton Sea, Big Bear Lake, Railroad Canyon Reservoir near Elnore, Lake Henshaw and the Owens River and Topaz Lake regions in the High Sierra mountains.

It is pointed out that limits are set at five ducks per day and ten in possession after the opening days. Seasonal hours will be noon on the initial days and sunrise to one hour before sunset on the remaining days.

Officials warned that all nimrods must have hunting licenses in addition to a duck stamp in their possession. Duck stamps are obtainable at U. S. post offices.

Bazaar Draws More Than 1200 Persons

More than 1200 persons were present Sunday at the bazaar given by the combined organizations of Nativity Catholic Church in the church parish hall.

A delicious baked ham dinner was served from noon until 7 o'clock and many booths, tables and other attractions furnished entertainment for the diners.

Proceeds from the successful benefit will go towards the building fund of the newly completed Sisters convent on Cota avenue.

During the bazaar, a $500 cash award was presented to Miss Joan Fisher, 12, resident of Avalon Village, Wilmington, who is a pupil at the new parochial school; a handsome bicycle was received by little Marcia Thompson, 2417 Sonoma avenue, and $25 in cash went to Susan Gately, of Figueroa street. Many other valuable gifts also were presented.

School Site Is Purchased

proceed as soon as we can get the site," Supt. Hull said.

"Our school population is growing everywhere and all we can do is go ahead with our plans to provide more schools and then ask the people to vote more bonds when present funds are exhausted."

Hull did not indicate just how long proceeds from the present bond issue may be expected to last. He said he thought it likely that a large school population would reside in the new small-homes rental project now under way just east of Seaside Ranchos.

"The smaller the house, the more children we may expect," the superintendent said.

Men's Club to See Film at Meeting
